You've been awarded! Now what?

- You will need to meet with PCD staff to sign your commitment letter AND your grant agreement.
- You must attend an approved small business training course. You cannot access your funds until AFTER you have completed the course.
- You can submit invoices and/or receipts 2 times during the grant cycle. These must be invoices for costs incurred or receipts for funds spent.
- You must show proof of your completed 10% equity match before submitting your second round of invoices and receipts.
- The grant closes December 1st, 2020. That means all funds must be spent, receipts/invoices submitted, and jobs created by this date. If by this date you have not complied with the grant requirements, your grant will convert to a paying loan.

If you are creating a job available to a low/moderate income individual:

- You must advertise your position in the Mid York Weekly with the advertisement provided to you before the interview process begins.
- 14 days prior to commencement of interviews for the position(s) you must fill out the Notice of Impending Hiring for Covered Jobs form
- You will need to have each person who applies to your available position(s) fill out the Family Income form provided by PCD.
- You will need to send quarterly job status reports to the PCD on a provided form.
